NOW READY.

THE CHRONICLE AND DIRECTORY FOR CHINA, JAPAN, STRAITS, &c., &c., FOR 1893,

With which is incorporated THE CHINA DIRECTORY.

This is the THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL ISSUE, and will be found, as usual, to show an advance on preceding years both in fullness and accuracy of information.

The DIRECTORY covers the whole of the ports and cities of the Far East, from Penang to Vladivostock, in which Europeans reside.

Not only is the Directory as full and complete in each case as it can be made, but each Colony, Port, or Settlement is prefaced by a DESCRIPTION, carefully revised each year, some of which will serve as accurate GUIDES for the Tourist, giving every detail in connection with the places, their History, Topography, &c., &c.

The Information afforded in these Descriptions alone would suffice to fill an ordinary volume, consisting of over EIGHTY highly interesting articles, packed with facts concisely set out, and containing statistics of the TRADE of each Country and Port.

The work contains Directories and Descriptions of

HONGKONG, APRIL 3RD, 1893.

H.M.S. Firebrand arrived on Friday from Manila.

The M. M. steamer Oxus left Shanghai at 8 a.m. on Saturday for this port.

The steamer Lightning left Singapore at daylight yesterday for this port.

The Glen Line steamer Glenartney, from London, left Singapore for this port on Thursday afternoon.

A meeting of Englishmen was to be held at Shanghai on Wednesday last to discuss the celebration of St. George's Day.

The O. & O. steamer Oceanic, with mails, &c., from San Francisco to the 14th ultc., has arrived at Yokohama, and left for this port yesterday morning.

The postponement of Mr. Cattaneo's concert in aid of the funds of the Nethersole Hospital, advertised elsewhere, has been rendered necessary by the illness of some of the performers and several conflicting events on the previously arranged date.

At a meeting of the Shanghai Literary and Debating Society on the 28th ult. the question discussed was:—"Would the adoption of bimetallism by a considerable number of nations give stability to the exchanges between gold and silver using countries and would it otherwise be generally advantageous?" A show of hands was overwhelmingly in favour of the affirmative.

An expectant Chehsien of Shansi, named Chang Wen-lin, has, we (Mercury) hear, petitioned the Board of Revenue asking that body to memorialise the Throne for permission to open the iron and coal mines in the entire prefecture of Tsa-chou, which contains five hsien or districts. The Board of Revenue, we understand, are willing, and the Throne's permission alone is wanted now.

A meeting of the Legislative Council will be held on Wednesday. The only business is a financial minute and Committee on the Bill entitled an Ordinance to provide means for ascertaining the amounts to be paid by way of compensation in respect of the Wharves and Piers along the line of the Praya Reclamation, to fix the periods for the payment thereof and for other purposes in connection therewith.

At the Magistracy on Saturday Capt. Hygom, of the Danish steamer Activ, was charged with having shipped kerosine oil in a prohibited place and during prohibited hours. He was at the gunpowder anchorage, where defendant said the Harbour Master had told him to go. He also pleaded ignorance of the hours at which kerosine might be loaded. For the first offence Capt. Hastings imposed a fine of $15, and $100 for the second.

Says the Bangkok Times:—The public—at least the better portion of it—will by this time have discovered the value of the foolish claptrap which has been circulated during the last few days concerning the French gunboat. As a matter of fact the Lutin has come to Siam on no diplomatic mission, and, so far from her arrival here having been unannounced, Mr. Pavie, the French Minister Resident, received the usual intimation, which was at once communicated to the authorities.

The Austrian Lloyd's steamer Maria Teresa left Kobe for this port on Saturday at 10 a.m.

The Russian cruiser Admiral Kornilof arrived yesterday from Singapore and the usual salutes were exchanged.

The D. D. R. steamer Niobe, from Hamburg, left Singapore on the afternoon of the 31st March, and may be expected here on or about the 6th April.

For leaving his anchorage during prohibited hours with a cargo and a large number of passengers the master of a junk was fined $100 by Capt. Hastings on Saturday. The fine was paid.

The carbine competitions of the Volunteer Artillery are to take place next Saturday. A good number of prizes are to be shot for, and, as there are a large number of recruits trying their skill, the competitions are likely to prove interesting.

Some fifteen Korean fishermen arrived at Shanghai on the 28th ult. They left their home a few days previously and being caught in a gale, their junk was upset; about half the crew were drowned, and the survivors were picked up and taken on to Shanghai.

Among the spring removes in the Customs, says the N. C. Daily News, are the transfer of Mr. R. E. Bredon, M. de Bernières, and Mr. Smollett Campbell to Peking, Mr. E. B. Drew to Canton, Mr. Ls. Rocher to Chinkiang, and Mr. Ludlow to Kowloon. Mr. Cartwright, we understand, goes home on leave from Peking.

Captain Blanke, of the German mail steamer Nurnburg, which arrived at Yokohama on the 22nd ult., from Hongkong, reports strong gales and high seas on the 19th and 20th between Turnabout and Siwo Point. The vessel was hove to for six hours in the worst of the weather, during which time oil was put overboard to "smooth the breakers," with successful results.

The British Board of Trade has recently awarded gold medals to Messrs. C. F. Goodhart, D. Mullen, D. Clark, C. A. Peters, and J. Glassey, Customs officers at Chefoo, "in recognition of the services they rendered in order to prevent loss of life on board the barque Stanfield, of London, which sprang a leak while lying in Chefoo Harbour during a furious gale on 23rd November last."

H.M.S. Daphne arrived on Saturday from Esquimault, B.C., to join the fleet on the China Station. Her coal capacity prevented her steaming direct across the Pacific, and accordingly she adopted a somewhat circuitous course. British Columbia was left on the 21st November last, and Honolulu was first visited, then Fiji, New Caledonia, Thursday Island, the Celebes, and lastly Manila, which port was left on the 27th ult.

The cup presented to the Hongkong Corinthian Sailing Club by the 1st S. L. I. will be raced for to-day. Course:—From S.M. Pier round Cow-e-shau and Cosmopolitan Dock Buoy (black and white), passing south of Stonecutters Island and leaving both marks to starboard. Finish W. to E. 14 miles. Handicap.—Payne allows Ladybird 1 min. 5 sec., Hiyah 4 min., Kitten 6 min., Elfin 7 min., Pearl, Com. and She 10 min., Chance 15 min., and Charmian 18 min. Start at 11 a.m.

The annual meeting of the New Shanghai Electric Co., Limited, was held at Shanghai on the 28th ult., when the directors were authorised to pay a dividend of Tls. 7 per share. The Chairman in the course of his remarks said the Company had had to borrow Tls. 15,000 for the purposes of buying new incandescent plant. The increase in the incandescent lighting was not observable in the present account very much, because, as stated in the report, the machinery had only been erected during the last quarter of the year, but they would see the satisfactory increase in that department of the Company's working in next year's accounts, and the increase would be a very gratifying one. If they had Tls. 100,000 more at this moment they could employ it immediately in a most profitable way, returning a very handsome profit to the Company.

The following translation of a curious placard which has been posted at Changsha, and a translation of which has been forwarded to the N. C. Daily News, will be read with some amusement:—"A report has just reached us respecting the building of gunboats in Hupeh for the protection of the foreign hongs The boats built last year were not self-moving. This year forty more were built, furnished with paddles, and possessing the power of self-propulsion. Several hundred of able-bodied men were enlisted for the service, and trained for future emergencies. Suddenly the heavens gathered blackness, and there appeared a monstrous thing, resembling in appearance an islet, in the midst of the stream. All the men became terribly alarmed, rushed to their guns, and fired. The monster, seeing the fire from the guns, made one mighty bound. The waves leaped up and touched the sky, and all the ships were destroyed. This is to be ascribed to the fact that Heaven cannot endure the devils."

Mr Bibby reports from Rangoon that he has discovered what he believes to be a true gold-bearing lode. For the sake of Pahang, and of investors, we (Straits Times) hope that it will really prove so. The Raub company upon its reduced capital is a fair adventure, and if this lode prove a true lode and a rich lode, its discovery will greatly encourage gold mining in Pahang. Even better, because more definite, news comes from the Rawang Tin mines in the State of Selangor. It may be remembered that the Rawang Tin Mining Company, because of most inefficient management, came to disastrous grief, and that the mine was sold for $27,500 to a small local syndicate which raised $13,750 of cash capital, and borrowed $13,750 on the security of the mine. That was some two or three years ago. The Company as reconstituted has since earned such profits that it has paid off the $13,750 which it borrowed, and it declares, to-day, a cash dividend of one hundred per cent. upon its remaining $13,750 of capital. That is to say, new shareholders have repaid all the money they have borrowed, and they now receive back as a first dividend the whole of the capital they have subscribed; and they still retain the mine with its machinery. It is impossible to conceive a mining adventure much more satisfactory than that That the Company should be able to pay off all its debts within two or three years, and at the same time to repay the whole of its capital, and should still continue to possess a money-earning mine is remarkably good business. Taking the present prosperity of Rawang in conjunction with the now continuous prosperity of Jelebu, there seems some reason to assume that what Malayan mining really needs is good management, and that with good management it will succeed.

Mr. R. E. Bredon, the Commissioner of Customs at Shanghai, in his annual report, says:—From much of what one heard and from some of what one saw it was naturally to be inferred that the end of a year had never seen Shanghai, as far as the Foreign community was concerned, in a sorrier plight than it was in at the end of 1892. There have been very heavy losses by individuals, some firms have been hard pressed, and certain businesses have suffered to such an extent as to bring some of those engaged in them almost to want. This is, I may say, entirely the direct and indirect result of speculations beyond China and outside the ordinary lines of China commerce. On the other hand, from what I gather in social intercourse with the community and from special inquiries made preliminary to this Report, I am inclined to think that, as far as the outcome of the ordinary legitimate commerce of the port is concerned, neither the Native nor the Foreign business man has any reason to speak harshly of 1892. That the present spirit of depression will have a chilling effect for some time on the public and probably make people less inclined to venture, is certain; but that it will have a lasting serious effect on trade here, I do not at all anticipate. The profits of these days must not, however, be compared with those of even 20 years ago. Now people do not expect fortunes; they are content with competencies and glad to get them. The merchant and his baronial hong absolutely only exist as fossils; they have been driven to extinction by the demands of an entirely changed style of trading, and the commission agent of a younger generation now serves as the sole Foreign connexion between Western manufacturers and Eastern consumers. The value of the year's trade is represented by a somewhat smaller figure than that of 1891, but there is nothing in it to indicate other than ordinary fluctuations due to no special influences and having no extraordinary significance.

The following appears in the Deli news of the Straits Times:—Advices from Hongkong tell of encouraging prospects for coolie emigration from there to Deli. Formerly, there used to be evident reluctance on the part of the authorities there to further in any way a regular supply of coolies from that port to Deli. Now, there is a change, and a strong desire, at any price, to divert thither the stream of emigration from South China to Deli. It rests as now with Deli planters to take advantage of this change of front. The latter is said to spring from the crisis which has overtaken Hongkong, and against which, at this moment, no better measure offers than the furtherance of whatever can draw money to the colony. That the emigration of Chinese coolies on a large scale is an excellent means to that end has been acknowledged even by the highest officials there. A correspondent of the Deli Courant says that they are ready, if need be, to lay the matter before the Home Government with every chance of success, despite the outcries of Exeter Hall philanthropists.

Our contributor "Upsilon" has unwittingly done an injustice to Mr. Bonser, the Attorney-General of the Straits Settlements, owing to the inaccuracy of the report in the Singapore Free Press on which his remarks were founded. Mr. Bonser did not say that the only respectable thing the Chamber of Commerce had ever done was to return Mr. Shelford to the Council. The official report of what took place is as follows:—

The Attorney-General—Sir, in this matter I have the advantage of being neutral, and listening with an open mind to the opinions of the unofficial members. Almost every unofficial member present has spoken in favour of the motion. There is one who, with his customary vehemence, has spoken against it. He has referred to the Singapore Chamber of Commerce in contemptuous terms.

Mr. Shelford—I beg your pardon, I spoke of it as an unpractical body.

The Attorney-General—Yes, but we know that the hon. member used that term in a Pickwickian sense. According to the hon. member it would appear that the only respectable thing that body has ever done has been to nominate him to this Council.

The Straits Times in its Netherlands-India news says:—At Sukabumie in West Java, the rice millers are mostly Chinese, but the Planters' Association there in their last yearly report raise objections to allowing Chinese freer access in the interior of the island. The objection is best expressed by a deceased colonial politician in Holland, who said, in 1892, that the Chinese in Java take advantage of the Javanese in every way, by squeezing, deceiving, and impoverishing them. They, in his opinion, stand so far apart from the general community that every well-wisher to the island should aim first at curtailing their power and influence. Hence the Government has, of late, been inquiring into the admission and settlement of Chinese in the inland provinces of Java. The evidence available shows that unrestricted admission of Chinese there has had mischievous results. The Association urge their total exclusion from the interior of Java; on the ground that they are needless there for cultivation and industrial purposes, and that, wherever Chinese settle down, they monopolise as many branches of industry as they can to the detriment of the lower orders.

The annual meeting of the Shanghai Gas Co. was held on the 29th ult., when the report and accounts were adopted. The Chairman, in the course of his speech made the following remarks, which may be commended to the attention of the Hongkong Gas Co.:—The increase in the consumption of gas is very satisfactory, particularly for such a year as 1892, and testifies to the good effect of lowering the price whenever practicable, which has been the policy of this Company for the last fifteen years. Last year I pointed out that although 32 per 1,000 cubic feet was extremely moderate, yet if business warranted it we would accommodate our customers by making another reduction, which we did, making the rate $1.85 from the beginning of 1893. The total increase is over 7,000,000 cubic feet, the largest in any year with one exception, and if the increase continues we will in all probability have still lower prices. These reductions apply to the Municipalities as well as to private consumers, and with the discounts allowed you will see that the prices are [illegible] $1.75 to immediately large consumers and [illegible] to the largest. These are extremely low rates and show that the public benefit as well as the shareholders by the prosperity of the Company.

Count Festetics de Colna, formerly an officer in the Austrian Navy, who after wedding the daughter of one of the leading men on the Pacific Coast settled down in San Francisco, has, we read, determined to start on a cruise round the world in a yacht specially built for him. The following will be the dimensions of the new craft: length over all, 110 feet; length at load line, 94 feet; beam extreme, 25 feet; depth of hold, 9 feet 6 inches; displacement, about 200 tons. One of the peculiar features about the yacht is that she will have two rudders, one of which swings in the keel and will control the ship in case of an accident to the regular rudder. This is an entirely new patent and will be used for the first time in Count Festetics' yacht. It is the invention of a San Francisco man, and is partly owned by Captain McNevin, who has patented it in all parts of the world. Work was expected to be begun on the yacht before the end of February and she will be ready for sea by the first of May. This will give the shipbuilders only about sixty days in which to complete their contract. The Count and Countess will then start on a tour of the world, their first point being Honolulu. From there they will come to China and Japan, and then back to the Pacific archipelago, where they will cruise among the beautiful South Sea islands for a year or more. After this their course will take in Australia and the remainder of the Antipodes, and thence up the South American coast to New England.

In his report on the trade of Shanghai in 1892 Mr. R. E. Bredon, the Commissioner of Customs, referring to the silk trade, says:—"As to the influence of exchange on the trade, I may quote what a well-informed merchant writes me: 'The finer and better classes have advanced 8 to 10 per cent. in 1892-93, whilst the lower and coarser kinds are very much the same in both seasons, with an average exchange for 6 months' documentary bills about 18 per cent. lower, up to date.' Allowing for advances from ordinary demand and supply causes, I think this indicates that, generally speaking, cheap silver buys about as much silk as dear." Under the heading of "Treasure" Mr. Bredon says:—"There has been, as in 1891, a large export of the precious metals, and this is most marked in regard to gold, of which nearly Hk. Tls. 7,000,000 worth was exported. As this figure is considerably higher than that which represents gold imported, it may be fairly assumed that local stores have been largely drawn on. I am told by bankers that Chinese are freely selling gold in the belief that its silver price is now about as high as it will be. This is quite in accord with what I gather in my conversations with Chinese, who all seem to me to hold that the present low price of silver, or rather, from their standpoint, the high price of gold, is not one likely to be permanent. A good deal of Chinese money has been staked on exchange speculations recently and it has not all come back. The year ends with silver stocks small and money a little dear."

The Shanghai Mercury says:—It is evident from the following that the importance of possessing a knowledge of Western arts and science is gradually but yet surely forcing its way into the minds of the Court and Princes of the dynasty that now rules the destinies of this Empire, as witness the information just received from the North that the well-known Prince of Ch'ing, President of the Tsungli Yamen and Co-President with Li Hung-chang of the Admiralty Board, has engaged the services of a tutor in the English language for his eldest son and heir, and that the Prince of Shuh has also engaged a tutor for his son; but in this case it is to teach the French language. Last year His Majesty the Emperor commenced studying English, but no report of the progress made by this illustrious personage has so far been given out to the public. It is also a well-known fact that the sons of Li Hung-chang have all a more or less useful smattering of English, but perhaps it is not so much a matter of public knowledge that the sons of such high officials as Chang Chih-tung, Liu Ming Ch'uan, Liu Ping-chang, Viceroy of Szechuen, and the grandsons of Liu K'un-yi and the late Tso Tsung-t'ang have all either studied or are yet studying English at their homes in Anhui, Hunan, or Chihli, and let us hope that the seed thus sown and to be sown will bring forth such fruit that may be for a closer union of interests with the nations of Europe and the United States, for it will be into the hands of the scions of such men that the future government of this country will be hereafter entrusted.

The police are taking active measures to rid our streets of the mendicant pest, to the unusual prevalence of which our contributor "Upsilon" made reference a few days ago. Yesterday no fewer than twenty-three arrests were made, while on Saturday a number of beggars were brought before the Magistrate and ordered to be sent back to Canton, whence they come periodically in large batches to infest Hongkong.

We take the following from the Singapore Free Press:—At a meeting of the Committee of the Singapore Rifle Association held yesterday afternoon the Secretary was instructed to communicate with Hongkong and Shanghai in reference to the Inter-Colonial or Inter-Port match for this year. The date suggested for the match is approximately the fortnight including the last week of April and the first week of May, this being a period of the year which will probably more nearly than any other secure somewhat similar weather conditions at all three places. The terms on which the match will be fired will be, it is presumed, precisely as on the last occasion. The match has been fired three times, Shanghai winning in 1890, and Hongkong carrying off the victory for 1891 and 1892. The proposals to have a permanent trophy in the form of a shield or other suitable design to be held by the winning Colony for the year are still under consideration. Owing to the state of trade in the Far East at present, however, it is possibly well-advised of the committees in Shanghai, Hongkong, and Singapore not to come to the public of these Settlements just now for contributions towards this object. Meantime it is understood that all these wins go towards the records to be inscribed on the trophy when it is provided.

Sir Elliot Bovill, Chief Justice of the Straits Settlements, died of cholera at his residence, Sherwood, Paterson Road, Singapore, at 6 p.m. on the 24th ult. The Straits Times gives the following particulars:—The Chief Justice, accompanied by the Attorney-General, left Singapore on Monday afternoon (20th) for Malacca, where cholera is supposed to be more or less prevalent. While at Malacca the ordinary precautions were taken, the Chief Justice, during the whole of his stay at Malacca, drinking absolutely no water other perhaps than aerated water from Singapore. It is to be noted, however, that his rooms in the Stadt House faced to the sea and overlooked certain excavations which are at present going on there, and it is possible that the excavations from the newly turned up ground may have had something to do with his illness. At all events, he complained of feeling unwell while at Malacca, and on his return from that place (which he left about ten o'clock on Wednesday night, arriving at Singapore on Thursday morning) he again complained of feeling unwell. He was not, however, sufficiently ill on the Thursday to prevent his doing work in Chambers, or even to prevent him from taking his usual afternoon exercise. On Friday, however, at three o'clock a.m. he became seriously ill with symptoms of dysentery or cholera, and at 8.30 a.m. he sent for Dr. Head. Dr. Head found the Chief Justice suffering from severe cramps, and diagnosed the disease as cholera. Dr. Head then sent for Dr. Kerr, the Acting Colonial Surgeon, and Dr. Kerr remained continuously with the Chief Justice until he died at six p.m. For several hours before his death, the Chief Justice was unconscious. Unhappily, the presence or whereabouts of Lady Bovill are unknown. She remained in Cyprus for some time after the departure of her husband for the Straits, and at present she is supposed to be travelling leisurely between Cyprus and England. It was Sir Elliot Bovill's intention that Lady Bovill should see to the placing of his children at school in England, and then have joined her husband in the Straits, where, in ordinary course, she would have been expected in a few months.

ENGLAND'S POLICY IN EGYPT.

Lord Rosebery in a despatch to Lord Cromer dated 16th February recapitulated the events connected with the recent crisis. He protested against the action of the Khedive and stated that if disregarded it would have entailed further grave consequences. He considered it not prudent to positively assume that all risk of future trouble had ended England must continue her present policy as it is absolutely certain Egypt can in no case be released from European control, which might easily be more stringently irksome than at present.

Lord Cromer's report on Egypt for 1892 dwells on her prosperous financial position. Considers it neither possible nor desirable to, at present, attempt to reconquer the Soudan.

THE "CHARTERS TOWER" ASHORE IN JUNK BAY.

On Saturday morning the steamer Charters Tower struck a rock off Waglan Island and received such injuries that it was deemed expedient to beach her in Junk Bay. The steamer was bringing a cargo of coal from Kobe consigned to the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha, and on nearing Hongkong was proceeding slowly on account of a thick fog. Capt. Murray, however, suddenly found himself quite close to Waglan, and in endeavouring to clear the island by putting his vessel full steam ahead, struck an outlying rock and stove a hole in the hull below the water line. She rapidly made a considerable depth of water and Capt. Murray determined to beach in Junk Bay and procure assistance. This was done and the steamer remains in that position. Mr. Cooke and Mr. Macdonald, of the Dock Company, have made two visits to the steamer, and pumping apparatus and other necessary machinery have been put in active operation to place the vessel in a condition to be towed into dock.

THE STEAMERS ASHORE IN THE HAINAN STRAITS.

Both the steamers, the Krim and Haiphong recently reported ashore in the Hainan Straits have been safely floated off, without any material damage resulting. The Krim arrived in Hongkong on Friday and on the same evening M. de Champeaux received a telegram from Haiphong to the effect that the Haiphong was safe in Hoihow and was reloading to resume her voyage. It appears that during a thick fog on March 25th the M. M. steamer took the ground on the South Bank and that finding his vessel firm on the bottom, the Captain made signals of distress which the Krim saw, and thereupon proceeded to her assistance. A hawser was thrown out and made fast, but unfortunately after one or two attempts to move the Haiphong it parted and the Krim herself became a companion in distress on the shore. On the 27th, however, having jettisoned about 150 tons of coal she managed to get off without having suffered injury, and as a Chinese gunboat was in attendance on the Haiphong the Krim proceeded on her way to Hongkong, where she arrived as above stated.

HONGKONG CORINTHIAN SAILING CLUB.

The final for the Haikwan Cup was sailed on Friday in a fine breeze, which held with good strength all day. Hiyah, who led in the first two races, scored another win and won the first prize easily. Her performance was most remarkable. Notwithstanding the fact that most of her standing rigging carried away and jury shrouds and stays had to be fitted whilst under way she showed a clean pair of heels to all except the Payne. The latter's extra length, weight, and bluff bow told very much in her favour on the boat back from Cow-e-shau, and but for a great error in pilotage she would have gone very near scoring first honours; as it was, a shift of wind in the harbour which was not contemplated by her skipper lost her nearly ten minutes and allowed Hiyah to finish first and Dart to save her time.

Dart and Ladybird suffered from want of length. Their alterations having been made with view to improvement in light airs and smooth water, the latter made very bad weather of it in the jumpy sea coming back from Cow-e-shau and eventually had to pull a reef down.

The course was the same as for the other races for these cups and it was very plain sailing throughout. Running through the harbour a good many jibes had to be made, which in the fresh wind were somewhat exciting, but no spars suffered, and except in Hiyah's case nothing carried away. The finish was as follows:—

	H.	M.	S.
Hiyah	2	53	45	10 marks
Payne	2	56	40	1 "
Dart	2	58	58	4 "

OPERATIONS.

One hundred and fifty-two operations under the influence of an anæsthetic have been performed during 1892, with results as under:—

Cured	135
Improved	11
Not improved	1
Died	2
	152

In the above figures no account is taken of the dental operations, nor of a very large number of minor surgical operations, such as opening of abscesses, catheterizations, reduction of simple dislocations and of fractured bones, removal of nasal polypi and other small tumours, &c., performed daily in the Out-Patient department by the visiting medical officers, the house-surgeon, and the senior students.

THE EVANGELISTIC WORK.

Daily exposition of scripture is conducted in the out-patient room in connection with every consultation, and in each of the five wards there are morning and evening prayers with similar scripture reading and exposition, while conversational work is systematically carried on among such in-patients and out-patients as are willing to hear, or anxious to enquire, the way of life more fully. Evangelistic effort and professional work proceed side by side in the hospital throughout the whole day, yet all is so arranged that neither in any sense interferes with the other.

There is reason to believe that the Hospital is becoming increasingly useful as an evangelistic agency, but results of such work cannot be tabulated; and we do not attempt it. God's word does not return to Him void, and we have good hope that in the case of not a few "The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people . . . that this man and that man was born" in the Alice Memorial Hospital.

Among the women this work is carried on by Miss Field and a Bible woman, and among the men by two evangelists of the London Mission, named Wong Fuk Yü and Koug Hoi Kai, set apart specially for this service, under the guidance and supervision of the ordained native pastor, the Rev. Wong Yuk Ch'o, who himself with several volunteer occasional workers also takes part.

The following donations to the special fund for the purchase of tracts, books, and scriptures are hereby acknowledged with thanks: Lockerbie United Presbyterian Church Sunday School, £9. 10. 0; Lockerbie Mission Hall Sunday School, £0. 17. 0; and Stratford Congregational Lecture Hall, per Rev. M. H. Wilson, £1. 15. 0. The tracts and books are disposed on shelves in the wards, and are largely made use of by the patients.

THE PROPOSED SAMARITAN SOCIETY.

Mrs. Stevens is still moving in the direction of the formation of a Samaritan Society in connection with the Alice Memorial Hospital. Its objects will be similar to those of the Benevolent Society, already doing such excellent work in the Colony, but its sphere of operation will be entirely distinct, since it is to render help to patients of the Hospital who are almost exclusively Chinese, and who are by Rule 2 of the Benevolent Society cut off from participation in the benefits of that organization.

The time has seemed inopportune to organize the Samaritan Society; but a number of ladies have already interested themselves informally in its objects. By their help Mrs. Stevens has during the year been able to supply clothing to a number of the patients who seemed most in need of it; to furnish travelling expenses to poor folks who on leaving the Alice Memorial Hospital wished to get away back to their native villages for rest and change of air; to purchase fruit for some of the patients; and to set up in business as a fruit-seller one poor fellow, whom aneurism of the thoracic aorta (a blood tumour in the chest) rendered unfit for ordinary manual labour.

When the new hospital is completed, an effort will be made to organize the society; but meanwhile any who may feel disposed to aid in the work already being done in this direction are invited to communicate with Mrs. Stevens, who will also thankfully receive, and put to the best uses, gifts of money, fruit, flowers, cast-off clothing, &c., sent to the hospital.

THE HOSPITAL FUNDS.

The Treasurer's balance sheet shows a very serious excess of expenditure over income during the past year. The extension of the year to thirteen months, in order that for convenience in the collecting of subscriptions from the Chinese the financial year may in future end on 31st January, accounts for $500 odd; and loss on remittances to London for medical and surgical stores through the low value of the dollar, and the increasing expenses of an increasing work chiefly account for the remainder; but, while there is no immediate cause for anxiety on this score, it is peculiarly unfortunate that in the year preceding the opening of a new Hospital supplementary to the present building there should be such a very considerable falling off as there is in the foreign contributions to the funds. Happily, the Chinese have risen to the occasion, and in spite of hard times their contributions are larger than last year, a result due to the vigorous efforts of Messrs. Wei Yuk, Ho Tung, and Tsang Sz Kai, to whom, as also to all others who during the year have bestowed time, labour, money, or gifts in kind, on the Hospital, I beg to offer most hearty thanks.

JOHN C. THOMSON, M.A., M.D.

The accounts for the thirteen months 1st January, 1892, to 31st January, 1893, show a balance carried forward of $1,918, as against $2,732 brought forward from the previous account. The donations as per donation list amounted to $7,195 and special donations to $463, and the interest from the permanent fund and current account amounted to $1,113.

THE FRENCH MINISTER AND PRESS CRITICISM.

The Shanghai Mercury has received the following telegram:—

"Peking 24. 3—6.15 p.m.

"Editor Shanghai Mercury, Shanghai.

"Je relève dans le leader de votre journal du 16 Mars 1893 le passage suivant 'Not has Mr. Lemaire such a high reputation among either his fellow countrymen in China or the Chinese who remember his connection with the French Syndicate and his hunting after commercial contracts that he needs be so chary of going, etc.' Je considère cette assertion comme diffamatoire de mon caractère public et privé et vous somme de la rétracter dans le plus prochain numéro de votre journal.—Lemaire."

The Mercury makes the following remarks upon the telegram: "The French Minister labours under a great misapprehension if he thinks that what we have written about him as a diplomatist was in any way intended to reflect upon his private character, with which we have nothing whatever to do, and have never had any intention to deal. But a public man, holding such a position as the Minister of France does, is a fair object for newspaper criticism, and while admitting that we have availed ourselves freely of the privilege, we have in no way abused it. We do not propose to deal with the subject any further at present than to give the following few extracts from our contemporaries, which the late Minister may not have before seen, and which will pretty clearly convince him that we are not singular in the opinions we have formed of his method of diplomacy, and which his hasty telegram to ourselves leads us to conclude is not always based upon either good sense, tact, or dignity, and is further only calculated to make him ridiculous in the eyes of his own countrymen, of other Foreigners, and of the Chinese.

[Certain extracts from the Daily Press and other papers are then given.]

CATARRH, HAY FEVER, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS.—A NEW HOME TREATMENT.—Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and Eustachian tubes.

Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby these distressing diseases are rapidly and permanently cured in a few simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of 2d. stamp by A. HUTION DIXON, 43 and 45, East Bloor St, TORONTO, Canada.—Scientific American. [243

CHOLERA IN CHINA.

A correspondent contributes the following to the N. C. Daily News:—

It may interest residents in the comparatively healthy foreign settlements in China, who do not, as a fact, come into direct contact with "the Great Unwashed," to learn what steps, if any, are taken by the officials, and elders of a densely populated city in the event of an outbreak of cholera.

Special attention was paid by the writer to this matter during the recent epidemic in the newly opened port of Chungking, and where, so far, the European residents occupy premises within the city walls.

It was found that the officials were quickly alive to the necessity for stamping out the disease, to which end they urged by proclamation and placards the necessity for paying more attention to the cleaning out of drains and cesspools, and to the keeping of dwelling houses clear of evil smells by occasional fumigation, and by the early removal of offal, decayed vegetables, and the like. Whilst care in diet was advised the gratuitous distribution of medicine was advertised at each of the yamêns and at the offices of the various benevolent societies. Folks being unwell were urged to at once apply for treatment; whilst shells were provided at fixed stations, and special constables detailed to at once enoffin and bear away for interment any strangers dying on the streets, in alley ways, or on vacant lots.

In this connection a grim sight was once observed, nothing less than a poor wretch spasmodically lifting his arms and legs above the sides of a lidless shell, into which the 8 coolies, seeing that he was in extremis, had dropped him. To a European, the idea was repellent beyond measure, but there was wisdom of a practical kind in the rough action taken. The victim, an emaciated beggar, had fallen in his tracks, and anon would have been trambled over and trodden on by the crowds rushing in and out of the adjacent wet and muddy city gate. In his coffin the waif could at any rate die in comparative peace, and no one was likely to come in search of him, or mourn his loss any way!

The following were amongst the antidotes and precautions advertised by placards, and which it must be admitted savour more or less of the practical:—

1.—Dwellings are efficaciously disinfested by burning a mixture of powdered rhubarb and trang shu (atractylodes alba).

2.—As a preventive against contagion pills compounded as follows will be found beneficial:—

Tan shan (salvia multiorrhiza)	2 oz
Hsiao-tou (abrus precatorius)	1 oz
Hsiang huang (realgar)	5 mace

Mix with honey, and form into pellets of which take five in the morning on an empty stomach.

3.—If thrown in contact with a cholera patient, swallow, as soon as obtainable, some bits of raw garlic, washing the same down with a little wine in which some realgar has been infused. Failing this, envelop some realgar in cotton wool and plug the nostril, the left in the case of a male, the right in that of a female. Thus will infection be warded off.

4.—Your water supply will remain pure and wholesome if you take care to keep a couple of branches of the acorus calamus floating in the water kongs.

In addition to the above, a clan, styled the Ming-hsing-shih-kêu, as regards tenets, to the faith-healers of Europe, urged that contagion could not be warded off by the use of drugs and simples, but that security lay in devout and decorous conduct. "Let heaven and earth be duly worshipped; let the gods and spirits be had in due reverence; let filial acts be fully and strictly observed; let depraved and obscene thoughts and actions be studiously avoided, thus would perfect immunity from contagion be secured, and thus only."

In connection with the employment of garlic as an antidote, it will be in the recollection of the home papers that during the outbreak of cholera in Europe last season it was observed by sanitary inspectors, medical men and others, that, in rows of distinctly ill-drained unhealthy cottages, the occupiers of dwellings having strings of onions hanging from the ceilings enjoyed comparative immunity from attack, and again, that in districts where onions and garlic entered freely into consumption as food, fatal attacks were uncommon.

MARINE COURTS OF INQUIRY.

A Paper laid before the Legislative Council of the Straits Settlements contains the following Board of Trade-letter to the Secretary of State, Colonial Office, dealing with the power of a Marine Court of Inquiry to pass censure upon officers whose certificates are not dealt with:—

LONDON, 13th February, 1893.

SIR,—I am directed by the Board of Trade to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th instant, transmitting a transcript of an Ordinance passed by the Legislature of the Straits Settlements to amend the Marine Court of Inquiry Ordinance 1870, with a copy of a despatch from the Governor of the Colony upon the subject, and in reply I am to acquaint you, for the information of the Marquess of Ripon, that the Board are of opinion that the Ordinance in question may properly be approved.

As regards the question raised by Sir Cecil Smith respecting the passing of censure on officers whose certificates are not dealt with, I am to request you to state to His Lordship that, when Courts of Inquiry in this country do not propose to deal with certificates, they always censure the officers if they think they deserve a degree of blame short of actual punishment.

I am to add that the Board of Trade have no authority to interfere with the form in which Courts choose to express their opinions.—I have, &c.,

GEORGE I. SWANSTON.

THE STRAITS MILITARY CONTRIBUTION.

A memorandum on the Straits Military Contribution by the Singapore Branch of the Straits Association has been published. The Straits Times makes the following remarks upon it:—The memorandum was compiled by Mr. W. J. Napier, barrister-at-law; and it is a complete and most reasonably argued statement of the case for the Colony. The memorandum very clearly brings out that the Straits pays a much greater sum per head for each soldier, and a much greater proportion of its whole revenues, than any other Colony. It is shown that the recent excessive charges have absorbed the old colonial surpluses and are causing yearly deficits. It is contended that a very old agreement between the Colony and the Home Government is being interpreted contrary to equity, is being applied contrary to public principle, and is working grave injury to the Colony. The Singapore Branch of the Straits Association has printed fifteen hundred copies of the memorandum, and it sent them home by the mail, asking the Straits Association of London to distribute them to members of Parliament, to newspapers, and among other agencies. The intention is to spread the Straits view of the Straits case as widely as possible; and at the same time to shew the facts and figures on which we base our request for a lesser military charge. It is hoped that by that means persons in England may be led to adopt the view that the Straits have been hardly used, and to pressure may be brought to bear on the present Government to reconsider the decision of its predecessor. The real difficulty that hinders is the English exchequer and the inconvenient, and decidedly unfair, retort:—"Very well, if you of the Straits don't like your bargain, go back to India, and India will cheerfully defend and govern you as it did aforetime." Of course we don't want to go back to India. In a sort of a way, the unofficial mercantile population of the Straits manage now to have a good deal of influence over public affairs. We must even confess to a notion that, as an exponent of the sifted judgment of the Colony, the Straits Times can at present exercise a beneficial and fatherly supervision over the ways of government. But India is a big country, and the Indian Government is a big machine; and the non-official of India is a very small influence. We may even doubt whether the Viceroy trembles when the Pioneer frowns. As a matter of fact, there can be no relation between the task of governing three hundred millions of people who were conquered by the sword, and the task of governing two seaports inhabited largely by immigrants. The latter is our Straits task—for the Malayan dependencies are not yet directly under Straits administration; and for ourselves and for the Empire, we of the Straits can do the work better by a Colonial Government than by the very capable but very autocratic administration of India. Therefore, we are not in a position to assail the Home Government, but only to argue and to convince those who can influence the Home Government. That is the object of Mr. Napier's memorandum; and the memorandum is well adapted to attain its object.

THE "KING OF FLOWERS SOAP" (KWA-O SEKKEN.)

OF all Oriental Soaps the best manufactured and most fragrant, the "KING OF FLOWERS," is thoroughly pure and without any Alkali whatever. The perfume is agreeable, while the Soap itself may be used to the thinness of a wafer. Owing to its non-irritant character, the use of this Soap produces a healthy appearance and a soft, velvety feel of the skin, the earnest of a delicate and beautiful complexion.
Beware of counterfeits and see that you get none but the genuine
